

GO LOCO NEWS

Office catering with a purpose

MARCH 2026

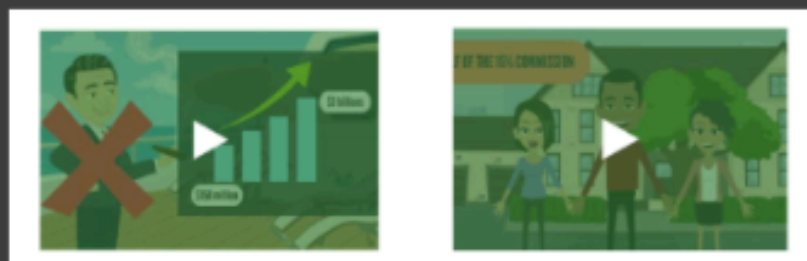

Proving the power of community

I was recently invited to be a panelist at the University of Tampa Lowth Entrepreneurship Center to discuss the power of networking. UT promotional brief:

"Mike Magee is the founder of Go LoCo Catering. He built a community-powered catering marketplace that redirects profits back to local customers, cancer patients and drivers. His model proves that local businesses can compete and win when they are backed by their own community."

That last line is everything: "backed by their own community." A great business model is only as good as the support that validates it. To our incredible customers: thank you for being pioneers in the office catering industry. By choosing Go LoCo, you are doing so much more than ordering great food—you are igniting a movement.

Want to see exactly how this community-powered model works? Check out these two quick videos below to see the multi-million dollar problem we're solving, and how Go LoCo provides a superior service while keeping those dollars right here at home where EVERYONE WINS!
